“ Everywhere Twyla went she seemed to see beauty and hope, love and acceptance...I believe that was because she brought it with her. Love to the family, Dan and Betty Manning

“ What a dear sweet friend. I cleaned for Twyla and James. I got to know her and came to love her very much. Our chatter and laughter will always be close in my heart. Love to you James, you were her world. I will send my love and prayers to all of her family and friends. She was one of the best and will be missed. Love to you all.

“ I grew up in Strafford and worked for Twila and Jim at Eastgate back in the 60's. They were hard workers and loved them both. Would run into them at different times over the years and we always enjoyed our time together. So sorry for your loss. Nancy (West) Wood.

“ Twyla had been a neighbor for over 20 years and a friend in the Sunshine Club also. She loved to arrange our luncheons at tea rooms and unique restaurants. She will be greatly missed by her friends and family.

“ I first heard of Aunt Twyla when my fiance, Beverly Glynn, said to me, "We're having our rehearsal dinner at Aunt Twyla's Restaurant. She's making her homemade noodles and she's making us one of her famous Red Velvet Cakes!" I'm standing there saying, "Who is Aunt Twyla?"

Well, I learned who Aunt Twyla was over the 47 ensuing years. Aunt Twyla was one of the most caring, loving, and giving people I have ever had the privilege of knowing. She accepted me into the family and always made me feel at home. When we would go to Springfield to see family, we always had to see Aunt Twyla and Uncle James. She would regale us with stories and remember the most endearing details of events that happened.

It was with sorrow that I heard of her home going. I am fortunate that "we sorrow not as those who have no hope", for I know I will see her again. One of her most endearing qualities was the simplicity of her deep and abiding faith in Jesus Christ.

Twylan, you are missed already. You are loved by so many.

Missing you,

Gaylan and Beverly Grant
