January 3, 1992 - May 31, 2022

Zachary Zayne Stone was born on January 3rd of 1992 in Bolivar, Missouri. His name was chosen by his beloved (maternal) Grandma Joyce. Zachary was born a fighter as he came into this world with many health obstacles that threatened his chance at life. Once he overcome those obstacles, he was a baby who was always smiling and putting a smile on faces of everyone around him. He was born a winner, as he was declared the 1992 First Baby of the Year, a contest sponsored by the Polk County Newspaper. As a child, he enjoyed playing Cops and Robbers, building treehouses, BMXing, watching WWE, and playing competitive sports. Following into his teen years, he discovered his passion for creating music, writing in his journals, and ordering Chinese takeout. Zachary continued to pursue his passion for music as an adult. He would record himself rapping to express himself and then, upload the songs onto the internet in hopes of one day becoming a rap star. Zachary was so determined to become a rap star that he even picked up the hobby of graphic design in order to create album covers for the music he had created. Besides his music, he enjoyed fishing, cooking, drawing, studying the Bible, and going to the Raiders game in Kansas City every year with his brother, Kanyon. Zachary touched the lives of many during his 30 years of life. He knew many people and had visited several places including living in Missouri, Texas, Wyoming and traveling to California. His family would describe him as someone who could make you smile because of his child like laugh and sense of humor. “ Oh this one here! My first nephew 💙 He was a boy full of spirit and energy and he sure gave us a run for our money but boy did he make us laugh! Heart of gold was placed within him that kept him true to who he was! I read all his journals and he was one big fan of Jesus and often loved to rap Christian lyrics in his own words.. he use to laugh sonmuch when he thought the world was just plain silly. He will always have that special place within me making me an Aunt. Yea he's the one who gave me that title and his love and sweet nature will carry on forevermore ❤️ RIP Zach!
