“ I have millions of memories of my grandparents, everything from holiday’s and summer vacations spent with them, to their visits to Marshall. I was my grandpa Jack’s shadow and he was my first best friend. I was my Grandmother Betty’s shopping and house buying companion and she was my biggest cheerleader. As much as they meant to me they meant even more to one another, and losing them both just a year and two months apart is almost unbearable. While I am sad for my family, I am so happy for them to be with one another again. I will miss them both so very much. I love you Grandmother and Grandpa.
