

Beulah Toth

January 2, 1924 - April 23, 2018

Beulah Beatrice Toth, daughter of the late Edward & Jane (Tibbs) Devore, was born on January 2, 1924 in Bluefield, VA and departed this life on April 23, 2018 in Bolivar, MO. At the time of her passing she was 94 years, 3 months and 21 days of age.

Beulah was born and raised in Bluefield, VA where she attended school until the 8th grade. After school she worked various small jobs until she met Frank Toth after he returned home from WWII. On July 17, 1946 they were united in marriage and to this union 6 children were born, 5 whom survive her. She stayed at home with the kids while they were growing up and even after they moved out and on with their lives, her main focus in life was caring for her children.

Beulah was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Frank Toth; her son, Randy Toth; and 14 siblings. She is survived by her two sons, Frank (Elaine)Toth and Michael Toth; her three daughters, Aletta (John) Phillips, Pamela Snapp, and Cathy (Dennis) Rice; and one brother, Leon Devore. She also leaves behind a host of many nieces, nephews, grandchildren and great-grandchildren who will all truly miss her.
