

Beverly Joyce Crowl

December 23, 1931 - October 25, 2015

Beverly Joyce (Greer) Crowl, 83, Buffalo, was born December 23rd, 1931, near Louisburg, Missouri, the daughter of Russie and Ressie (Jones) Greer. She died October 28th, 2015, at Colonial Springs Healthcare Facility in Buffalo, after a short illness.

She was united in marriage with Lawrence Dean Crowl on June 22nd, 1952, in Mountain Home, Arkansas, and to this union two children were born.

She went to Beautician school after graduating high school; this is when she met her husband. She worked at Farris Clothes Land in Buffalo for several years. After retiring she kept herself busy with fishing, canning, baking, crocheting, watching her grandkids and putting together puzzles; lots and lots of puzzles.

She was preceded in death by her husband Lawrence Dean Crowl, her sister Joann Vincent and her brother Jim Greer. Survivors include: Her son Dean and wife, Vickie Crowl; her daughter, Darlene and husband, Gus Acreback; three grandchildren: Michelle and husband, Victor Williams; Schellie and husband, Brandon Lake, and JD Crowl and fiancé' Katrina Day; five great grandchildren: Sawyer, Jade, Gavin, Brody and Kylie. One brother, John and wife, Shirley Greer; two sisters: Betty Parker and Linda Bacon. Along with many more family and friends.

Graveside Services were held Friday, October 30th at 1:00 P.M. at the Church Grove Cemetery, Foose with Rev. Jim Greer officiating. Services were under the direction of the Montgomery-Viets Funeral Home of Buffalo.
