“ My deepest condolences to the entire family. My heart is breaking so. My Uncle Bryce was a serious man when it came to business but he was always up for a good time and maybe a little mischievous from time to time. When I was 3 years old, he babysat me while Mom (his sister Bethel) was at the hospital. Uncle Bryce is the one who taught me to cuss. Those piles in the dirt were no longer called cow mud. They were now the real deal- cow s... and a lot of other fancy blue words. Granny was livid and Mom was appalled but Bryce just laughed. He was so darn cute, I think he could get away with anything. We all will miss his smile and generous ways, but I will love him forever. He was such a great man. Love you Uncle Bryce!
