Charles Edward Palmer, Charlie to all his friends, was born Nov. 11, 1940, the son of Clarence and Wallcie Palmer. He died Nov. 10, 2011, at Research Hospital in Kansas City.

He was reared in Tunas. He left there and went to work for Western Container in Kansas City, where he worked until he retired after 40 plus years.

He spent the majority of his life playing country, real country, music. For many years, he could be found "gettin' it" with a band on Friday and Saturday nights. After retiring from his job, his interests changed to racing. He would spend his Saturday nights racing around the dirt track in Warrensburg.

Hunting, fishing and shooting the breeze with friends were other activities he enjoyed throughout his life.

He was preceded in death by a daughter, Debra Darlene.

Survivors include his wife of 51 years, Nancy Owens Palmer, Odessa; his daughter, Deneice and husband, Jon Fernandez, Plattsburg; his son, David and wife, Karen Palmer, Blue Springs; four grandchildren who were his pride and joy: Justin Pollard, Joshua Fernandez, Mia Palmer and Trevor Palmer; two brothers: George and wife, Joyce Palmer, and Jerry and wife, Yvonne Palmer, all of Macks Creek; several brothers- and sisters-in-law; and nieces and nephews.
