

Clema Darlene Dill

January 16, 1930 - September 11, 2024

Clema Darlene Dill, daughter of Lannie and Edith Admire was born January 16, 1930, in Hartville, Missouri and passed away September 11, 2024, at her home in Conway, Missouri with her children by her side.

Darlene lived most of her life in the Competition and Conway area. She married the love of her life, Lawrence Dill, on December 24, 1946 in Paola, Kansas. In this union three children were born. She had no plans to marry a farmer but in 1949 she and her husband moved from Kansas to the Conway area where they started their dairy farm. Darlene worked various jobs in the Lebanon and Conway area, but her real love was raising her children and being a homemaker. She loved gardening and quilting, in between spending a lot of her time helping on the farm working in the field, milking, and raising calves. She and her husband retired from the dairy business in 1988, and they did some traveling. She enjoyed all of her grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great great grandchildren.

Darlene was saved in her home on September 26, 1949. She and Lawrence both joined Charity Missionary Baptist Church in 1954. She was a faithful member until her health failed her. She was a very strong member of the church and a good example for others to follow.
