Cosby, a dear lady, mother, sister and wife, was born August 20, 1920. She is survived by daughter Marilyn (Hill) Hedrick and husband Steve, a son John D. Hill and wife Elizabeth. A sister Nina Lewis and husband Paul. Her granddaughter, Heather Doke. In 1945, Cosby married Orr D. Hill (OD). In 1964, they started Bison Hill Game Farm in Buffalo, Mo. They both worked diligently raising Quail and later Chukar and Pheasant for the commercial hunting clubs located mainly in the middle of the US. She loved to make a garden and cook. She was known in the family for having the best fried chicken, Biscuits and Gravy and homemade rolls. She was one who treated everyone with a friendly smile and never met a stranger. Cosby loved traveling with the Buffalo Alumni Gals. She was such a fan of the group. Her passion was her cross stitch bedspreads, tea towels and table cloths. She loved hearing jokes, but when trying to tell a joke she would usually get it mixed up. No matter though, her laughter was so contagious that though the punch line might be missing, we couldn't help laughing along with her. Cosby, was preceded in death by her husband, OD, parents, Otto and Nettie Enloe, brothers Woodrow and Eldred Enloe and one sister Alice Enloe Menown. “ I remember being little and being at the Quail hatchery. Uncle Orr was my grand dad Noble's brother. My Mom, Donna, loved Uncle Orr and Aunt Cosby. My prayers and best wishes to all of the family.
