“ It was the first time I had ever met Curtis. My grandmother passed away the Tuesday after Memorial Day in 2005. I was asked to come up to Springfield, MO, and as I walked on by, he said, "Nice Trill Spots, Dax! I've always wanted to meet you." He became my first ever true love. I am saddened that he is gone, but not forgotten. I'm glad he was loved. He had an amazing family, and was proud to have a Shriner's brother!

“ Curtis was a proud member of the LGBTQ+ community. He advocated for rights and was proud of the man he became. Curtis will be missed. Acceptance needs to be a part of who he is in death just as it was in life. Rest In Peace my friend. May angels surround him, and saints welcome him in peace.

He was my ever first boyfriend! He is gone but not forgotten, even as we are approaching his 48th amazing birthday. I'm sure he's still racing his Dodge Avengers up in Heaven!
