“ Just heard of Don's passing. He drove a truck to our Sawmill in Climax Springs to pick up loads. He was one of our favorite regulars here. Very nice man with tons of knowledge that we could tell. So sorry to hear and our thoughts and prayers are with the family and his fellow driving buddies.

“ My Heart goes out to Don's Family. I worked with Don and Craig at Roadway and actually gave Don his road test. When the test was completed I told the Boss that Don did such a good job that he should be put on the road board ahead of Craig who had been hired earlier in the year. Don smiled a mischievous grin and said, fellas, I don't think that will go over very well at Christmas so you better just put me on the board where I belong. R.I.P. Brother

“ Don was always smiling it seemed. We first came to know each other when our daughters were playing junior high volleyball. At one practice the parents were "helping" the girls practice by playing against them. Well Don and I both went for the ball and crashed into each other! Yes girls we should have CALLED the ball! He also was a regular at The Habitat for Humanity Turkey Shoot and even was roped into helping one year. He was such a funny and kind man and he will be missed very much!

I have such a great memory of childhood summer with my cousin. We had a crazy time and learned much for a lifetime. Memories to take you to a time when life was so simple. Thank you Don. You brought a smile to this world.

“ Besides being a second dad to my daughter, Don had a special "aggravating" friendship with my son. When our daughters had high school games, Don would buy nachos with extra jalapenos. He would put them all to the side and when finished with the chips, would call my son up into the stands. He would offer Alex a dollar if he ate ALL the jalapenos. Alex would shove all of them in his mouth at once and after Alex had swallowed, Don would always fork over a dollar. And Don would continue to do that knowing he was going to lose a dollar. He had a huge heart for kids and my kids are lucky to have known him.
