Dorothy Wilma "Wig" Coffelt passed away on February 17, 2021 in Centralia, MO. She was the last remaining sibling of her parent's Clyde and Mary Guthrie. She grew up in Windyville, MO, joined the Baptist church and was baptized at Bennet Springs in 1946. She married in 1949 and had one son, Gary Loren Coffelt.

Wig earned a cosmetology license in Oklahoma and Missouri and worked for many years as a licensed beautician and owned her own beauty shop. Later she worked for the Medical Center of Independence and Loch Haven Nursing Home in Macon, MO.

Wig had many friends and loved having a good time. She enjoyed gardening and working in her yard and won the Neighborhood Beautification Award two consecutive years in a row in Independence, MO. She also enjoyed crocheting and created many afghans, scarves, and other handmade items that she sold or gave away to friends and family.
