

Doyle Wayne Nimmo

June 25, 1944 - November 11, 2021

Doyle Wayne Nimmo was a dedicated community member, a generous people person, and devoted most of all to his family. He left this world a better place on November 11, 2021 at 77 years, 4 months, and 17 days of age.

Doyle was born to John C. Nimmo and Claudine Richerson Nimmo on June 25, 1944 in Charity, Missouri. After Claudine passed away when Doyle was 4 years old, John remarried Mamie Canon Nimmo. Together they raised Doyle into the kind, giving man he became.

After attending grade school in Charity, Missouri, Doyle completed his high school education in Buffalo, Missouri where he enjoyed playing baseball and basketball. After graduation, he attended Southwest Baptist University for 2 years. He joined his father in the family business in 1962. He served in the Army Reserves from 1965 to 1971. In 1970, he was given the honor to own and operate the family business until his time of death. That honor has now been passed down to his daughter, Devona.

In 1966 Doyle united with Patsy Rogers and her two children, Angelia and Brad. Through this union, they were blessed with one daughter, Devona.

In 1988 Doyle married the love of his life, Carol Webb who brought to the union four children, Dawn, Bruce, Kay, and Michael. During this union, Doyle and Carol played a large role in helping raise their granddaughter, Kendra.

Doyle was a people person who was revered by all who met him; he was given the honor to serve on many insurance boards and a handful of various boards throughout the community. Although a respected professional, Doyle's real pleasure was in spending time with loved ones. Doyle and Carol owned a lake house at Lake of the Ozarks from 1994 to 2017 where they welcomed many friends and family members to join them. Doyle enjoyed teaching many people to water ski, coaching softball teams, and getting everyone together for family gatherings, especially around the holidays. He was a devoted Kansas City Chiefs fan, a John Deere enthusiast, and a black angus cattle farmer. Doyle was preceded in death by his parents; three sisters, Phyllis Sharp, Marjorie Powell, Helen Armstrong; and one grandson, James P. Hawkins III. He is survived by his wife Carol; his children, Brad Hawkins, Angelia Owens & husband Mike, Dawn Webb and friend Terri, Devona Allen & husband Jeff, Bruce Webb & wife Shaynan, Kay Webb, and Michael Webb & wife Jaymi; 10 grandchildren, Brooke Wolfe, Casey Cox, Sammie McCracken, Justin Webb, Loryn Barclay, Kendra Lynch, Brooklyn Webb, Jerika Vanderford, Mikale Williams, and Cooper Webb; six great-grandchildren with two on the way; siblings, John C. (Junior) Nimmo, Jr., Polly Lillegard, Charles (Chuck) Nimmo and William (Bill) Nimmo; loyal life-time employee and friend, Glenda Crawford; along with a whole community of family members and friends who will miss him dearly.

“ I am sad beyond belief on hearing of Doyle passing. He was like a brother and my fondest memories are with him and Carol going back nearly 40 years. He had an uncanny ability to clearly see solutions when others were in doubt as he demonstrated while on the MO Board for architects and engineers during the infamous Hyatt Hotel tragedy. His sense of humor was terrific and he will be missed beyond belief by all who knew him. My deepest sympathy goes to Carol, his entire family and his multitude of friends.
