“ My dear friend Ed was my go to guy when I had any questions about the bible or history. His knowledge was surpassed only by the size of his heart. He loved God with a passion rarely seen. His go to prayer every morning was Thank you Lord for another day and the gift of life. He taught me that I only had to worry about getting through the next 10 minutes. His favorite hymn was Amazing Grace. I think it was because it rang so true for him during some dark days of his life.

Ed loved his cookies and coffee during Sunday School. He would make fun of my hillbilly cappuccino which consisted of coffee with a packet of hot chocolate mixed in it.

Anytime I was going to be out of town, I could count on Ed taking my class for me.

Ed never moved very fast but he always made it to church when his health allowed.

Fly high my friend because if anyone deserved a pair of wings, it was you.
