“ So sorry for your loss. Mrs. Emma made a monumental impact in my life and in each of my sibling's lives. She was a godly woman that cared deeply about others around her and I look forward to the day that I'll see her again!

“ Emma was a dear friend, a wonderful testimony and stand-in grandparent for our kids, whose grandparents lived far away. We have so many fond memories of shared holidays and family gatherings, playing Uno and laughing a lot. When we were together last Thanksgiving, and talking about our goals for the coming year, Emma said she just wanted to be a blessing. She certainly met that goal. So thankful to know that she is in the presence of our Savior, where there is no more sickness or pain, and where we will see her again.
