Services were 10:30 a.m. Saturday, July 2, at Montgomery-Viets Chapel with the Rev. Robert Long officiating. Music selections included two recorded Gaither family songs. A family video was also shown and a eulogy was given by Scott Page. Burial was in Benton Branch Cemetery under the direction of Montgomery-Viets Funeral Home of Buffalo.

Escorts were Shelby Bradley, Sidney Bradley, Scott Bradley, Floyd Sweaney, Tom Brown and Brad Gerhardt.

Geraldine Sturdevant, 87, was born July 2, 1923, in Dallas County, the daughter of Charley Thomas and Thelma (Scott) Williams. She died June 30, 2011, in Elkland.

She was reared in the Buffalo area.

She was united in marriage with Donald Ward Sturdevant on Sept. 1, 1941, in Marshalltown, Iowa.

They made their home in Buffalo for most of their married life where they operated a dairy farm. They also lived for a brief time in the Kansas City area and in Little Rock, Ark., while her husband was in Army training.

She enjoyed gardening, watching TV and was an avid reader. She always had a story to tell and was a good source of family history.

She enjoyed spending time with her family and looking at family pictures.

She loved to cook, especially dessert, and was a 4-H foods project leader for 10 years. She was of the Baptist faith.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband of 56 years, Donald; two brothers: Gordon D. Williams and an infant brother; one sister, Gladys Bradley; and a grandson, Steve Sweaney.

Survivors include her son, Gary Sturdevant, Phillipsburg; her daughter, Karen and husband, Freddie Sweaney, Elkland; three granddaughters: Christina and husband, Thomas Brown, Marti Sturdevant, and Cindy and husband Scott Page; two great-grandchildren: Reagan and Ryan Page; a host of nieces and nephews; and other family and friends who will all sadly miss her.
