“ Glenn Ruth was such a wonderful cousin whom I dearly love, even though we were always separated by years (14) and distance. Her father Rayford was the oldest of the 6 siblings and mine, Carl Gene, was the youngest. In 2006 when Uncle Bob had passed away we were going to stay with Glenna and Donald on our way back to Texas. I jokingly said that since we weren't going to be home I wouldn't be able to make my corned beef and cabbage for St. Patrick's Day. When we arrived at their house on St. Patrick's Day she had corned beef and cabbage waiting for me. To me, that showed loud and clear how much she loved me. You will be so very missed. All my love to Donald, Debra, Brian, and all their families.
