

Mr. Irl Euliss Day

April 24, 1926 - September 16, 2018

On September 16 Irl Euliss Day passed away after a prolonged decline in health. Born 1926 in Marshfield, Missouri and grew up in Morrisville, Missouri the son of Ada and Irl Day. There he excelled in sports and upon graduation he entered the Navy in 1944. He served his country through the duration of World War II and returned home. He married Dorothy Scheel in 1947 and both continued their college education until they began their family of Diana Elder, Kathy Wannemacher, Dennis Day, and Cindy Day.

Irl was a teacher, coach, principal and warden in the Federal Bureau of Prisons from where he retired after many years of service. He enjoyed gardening, golf, and having an in-depth conversation. One of his writings says a lot about his personality: "What we must reach for is the concept of perpetual self-discovery, perpetual reshaping to realize one's best self, to be the person one could be."

Preceded in death by Dorothy, beloved wife of 49 years, Irl remarried and shared the last 21 years with Dale (Bradley) Day of Buffalo, Missouri. He enjoyed the blended family with 10 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Irl Euliss Day will join Dorothy, his brother Virgil and parents. He is survived by his spouse Dale; his children, step-children, and spouses; his grandchildren and great-grandchildren; and his sister, Betty Jo Stokes. Sleep well Irl.

“ I am so sorry I missed seeing this and attending the graveside services. I have so many fond memories of your entire family, but especially of the wonderful friendship of our parents. Your dad was such a gentleman and had such a great sense of humor and my parents treasured their friendship with both your mom and dad. They will both be missed!

“ Cindy, your dad had inspiring chats with us every time he would come into the dentist office, and always made us laugh! We always looked forward to his infectious smile, his exuberance of life, and of course how couldn't wait to get out to the Golf Course! He never left the office without talking about you! You are such a bright light in his life, and have SO many of his loving qualities! You know my heart and my prayers are with you today and everyday, and you will always be a true friend that I admire! Sending love, prayers, and hugs to you Cindy and all your family. God has a new, wonderful angel in heaven watching over all of you now 🌸.
