

Jessie B Sherman

July 22, 1924 - September 5, 2023

In loving memory of Jessie B Sherman, a remarkable woman who graced this world for 99 years. Born on July 22, 1924, she embarked on a journey filled with love, compassion, and unwavering dedication to those around her. On September 5, 2023, she peacefully departed, leaving legacy behind a legacy that will forever be cherished.

Jessie's life was defined by her role as a devoted homemaker. Her selflessness knew no bounds as she poured her heart and soul into creating a nurturing environment for her family. Her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and even great-great-grandchildren were the center of her universe, and their happiness brought her immeasurable joy.

She always had a pot of coffee brewing and a delicious dinner on the table, ready to be shared with her family, the customers of Bill Sherman's Garage, or anyone who happened to drop by. She had a heart of gold and was always willing to lend a hand to anyone in need. Whether it was a friendly chat over a cup of coffee or comforting meal, she made sure everyone felt welcome and taken care of.

A woman of unwavering faith, Jessie believed in the power of God's love. Her devotion guided her through life's trials and triumphs, providing her with strength and solace. Now, she rests in a realm far more exquisite than our earthly imaginations can fathom, reunited with loved ones who preceded her. Jessie's memory will forever be etched in the hearts of those who were fortunate enough to know her. Her kindness, generosity, and willingness to lend a helping hand touched countless lives. The void left by her absence will be deeply felt by the many individuals she touched with her warmth and compassion.

She is survived by her beloved children, Tom, Steve, Rose, and Richard, who will forever carry her spirit with them. Her grandchildren, Tassie, Cole, Wayne, Dawn, and Eric will cherish the memories they shared with their remarkable grandmother, Jessie's legacy extends to her numerous great-grandchildren and even great-great-grandchildren, who will grow up hearing tales of her extraordinary love.

In her journey beyond, Jessie joins her beloved husband, William (Bill) T. Sherman II. She is also reunited with her parents, Catherine (Schram) and Andrew Davis, and her siblings, Alberta, Ronnie, Bobby, and Brenda, who left this world too soon.

As we bid farewell to Jessie B Sherman, let us celebrate the profound impact she had on our lives. May her memory serve as a guiding light, reminding us to embrace love, kindness, and faith. Though she may no longer be physically present, her spirit will forever live on in the hearts of those who were fortunate enough to know her.
