“ Barbara, Gwen Swearingin and I had the fabric shop in Ozark in the 70's. I remember Jewell so well from all the time she bought fabric to make garments for her beloved Barbara. I remember how she matched plaids and insisted that strips run "just so" to adhere to her vision. She was so upbeat and always had pleasant, fun stories to tell about her family. She was such a joy to be around. My sympathies to you and to your family for your loss.
