

Joseph Vaughan Robberson

January 15, 1938 - March 26, 2015

Mr. Joseph Vaughan Robberson, 77, of Springfield, passed away Thursday March 26th at Glendale Gardens following a valiant fight with a variety of health issues. Born January 15, 1938 in Springfield to Josephine Vaughan and James Isaac Robberson, Joe attended Central High School and graduated from Drury College with a BS in Business and Economics. While in school, Joe also raised and exhibited American Saddlebred horses throughout the Midwest under the banner of Triple J Farms (the family stable).

After serving in the Air Force, he returned to enter the business world owning a variety of local businesses including the Black Forest Inn. At the same time he was involved in working and co-managing the family cattle farm in Urbana, Missouri.

In his spare time, Joe was an avid sports fan enthusiastically following the University of Missouri basketball and football teams. He enjoyed attending many games in Columbia with friends.

The family would like to thank Joe's longtime friend, Harry Benedetti, for his friendship and care of Joe.

Thank you also to the entire staff of Glendale Gardens for their excellent care and compassion while Joe was in residence there.

Joe was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his sister, Julia D. Robberson, brother, Dr. James A. Robberson (Eleanor), and nieces Charlotte McCoy (Scott), Lynn Neidigh (Doug) and their children Cory and Shannon McCoy and Jessica and Jackson Neidigh.

Funeral Services will be officiated by Rev. Brad Duff and will be held Monday, March 30th at 10:30 A.m. in the Montgomery-Viets Chapel (Buffalo, MO).

Visitation will be held prior to the service at 9:30 A.M.

Burial will be in Bower's Chapel Cemetery, Urbana, Missouri following the service.

Pallbearers are Dallas Johnson, Jamie Vaughan, Randy Hoffman, Scott McCoy, Cory McCoy and Doug Neidigh. Honorary pallbearers include Jack Ash and Harry Benedetti.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the American Diabetes Association or the charity of your choice.

Services are under the direction of the Montgomery-Viets Funeral Home of Buffalo.
