

Kimberly Lynn McGirl

July 9, 1958 - April 17, 2010

Memorial services are 1 p.m. Thursday, April 22, at Olive Point Baptist Church, Preston. A lunch will be served at 11:30 a.m.

Kimberly Lynn (Brown) McGirl was born July 9, 1958, in Turlock, Calif. She died April 17, 2010, at Cox South, Springfield.

Click image to enlarge She was saved at a young age. She rededicated her life to the Lord last year and became a member of Olive Point Baptist Church. Much of her childhood was spent in California. She moved to Missouri in 1979.

She was united in marriage with Tony Obernuefemann in 1975, and to this union three sons were born.

She spent her earlier years waitressing and became a caregiver to the mentally handicapped.

She was a giving person. She was always giving gifts. She loved the beach and especially loved her time on the beach with her two sisters. She enjoyed decorating, drawing, stained glass and shopping. But mostly she loved being with family, her sons and grandchildren whom she loved deeply.

She was preceded in death by her sister, Terry Laughlin; maternal grandfather, Harold Barlow; and paternal grandparents: Mary and Fred Brown. Survivors include her mother and father, Frances and Jim Anderson, Buffalo, her father, Denzel and wife Sue Brown, Hotchkiss, Colo.; grandmother, Ruth Beck, Buffalo; three sons: Michael and wife, Sarah Obernuefemann, and Randall and wife, Susan Obernuefemann, all of Buffalo, and Matthew and wife, Jamie Obernuefemann, Nixa; her grandchildren: Macy, Kaitlyn and Anthony Obernuefemann, and Gage and Case Obernuefemann, all of Buffalo, and Shelby and Pierce Obernuefemann, Nixa; her fiance, Clifford Haney, Buffalo; her two nieces: Jennifer and husband, David Stark, Grand Prairie, Texas, and their daughters, Claire and Kyle, and Jessica O'Neal, Aurora; her nephew, Tim Laughlin, Strafford; her brother-in-law, Mark Laughlin, Strafford; and many other friends and family that will miss her and always love her.
