January 26, 1933 - October 12, 2021

Leota Charlcie Dull, daughter of Otto and Charlcie (Holycross) Siebern, was born on January 26, 1933 in Chamois, Missouri. She departed this world on Tuesday, October 12, 2021 at the age of 88 years old.

Leota was raised and attended school in Chamois. After graduating high school, she attended business school in Washington D.C. While staying with her sister in Buffalo, Missouri, she was set up on a blind date with a gentleman by the name of John Dull. After working there for twenty-five years, her and John decided to convert a home next door into their own flower shop. She owned and operated Leota's Flowers and Gifts for almost thirty years. She provided flowers for her church, and many other events in the area. She loved serving her community. She was a faithful member of First Baptist Church in Buffalo. She taught Sunday School at her church and was a member of the Women's Missionary Union.

Leota was preceded in death by her parents, Otto and Charlcie Siebern; a son, Steve Dull; four sisters, Opal, Ruth, Lola, and Dorothy; and a granddaughter-in-law, Lyndsie.
