“ Yes, I dad do something fun. I went swmmiing at Wet n'Wild water park and talked to you while I was on the way with a bunch of kids in the back of the pickup with Abby, who went with me too. I did a pretty good job with the backstroke. I think the kids are about to beat me at swmmiing, so I hope I can hold up a little longer. I remember I didn't do such a good job when Darla was at Ft. Coob Lake, but an old indian helped us out, and I gave hime all the watermelons I had. I'm still growing tomatoes, green beans, squash and cucumbers. I hope I don't have to reward anybody with melones (cantaloupes) or sandias (watermelons), because they don't grow too good in El Paso, although I trying my luck again at pumpkins. Anyway, thanks for the memories, son, but remember; mine's the 10th, and your's is the (seven)teenth. Love always, Dad.

“ Dear Betty, Cindy & family, You are in our thoughts & prayers as you deal with the loss of your Mother.

Chubby was a very special person! My 1st memory of her was when Sam & I traveled to St. Louis with our Grandmother (Ethel Smothers Abney - your Grandfather Oliver's niece - Ethel's mother, Susan Harrison Smothers, was Oliver's older sister.) Chub was a wonderful hostess and arranged a trip to the Zoo during this visit. Betty was about six and Donnie was about three. I have many fond memories of your family visiting us at the farm and one time they arranged to have a pheasant stuffed for us boys. This beautiful bird still is a part of our old bedroom on the farm. The most memorable visit at O'Fallon, Illinois was shortly after your parents began taking an active roll as Christians and attending a local church..... For some reason...I always thought there was a strong similarity in our mother's (Chub & Lucille) personalities...and I definitely thought there was a similarity in our dad's (Robert & Waldo) appearance and personality!

We are grateful our sister, Pat Abney, has kept us somewhat aware of your family in recent years.

This is a difficult time, but a time to celebrate the love and wonderful things that Chubby (Mother, Grandmother & Great Grandmother) gave to your family and friends. Scott & Sue Abney 706 Wyandotte Avenue Lafayette, IN 47905

“ I have very fond memories of Mrs. Harrison, most of which include lots of laughs. May you rest in peace in the loving arms of your Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Heaven became just a little bit sweeter on June 4, 2012, because of you.
