

Margaret Francis Boller

August 22, 1923 - November 11, 2010

Private graveside services will be held under the direction of Montgomery-Viets Funeral Home of Buffalo.

Margaret Francis (Baldrige) Boller, 87, was born Aug. 22, 1923, in Kansas City, the daughter of Russell and Gladis (Arnett) Baldrige. She died Nov. 11, 2010, at Hermitage Christian Care Center, after a brief illness.

She married Robert Otto Boller Jr. in 1941.

She was an accomplished musician and artist who studied at the Nelson Gallery Art Institute in Kansas City, and the Dallas, Texas, art institute. She worked for four years in the design department at Hallmark during World War II.

Since 1966 she gave her full devotion to painting and teaching in Hickory County. She specialized in still life and landscape and conducted annual spring and fall workshops for her students.

She was a member of Springfield Southwest Missouri Museum Associates, and founder and co-director of the Pomee Palette Fine Arts Association.

She always had a sunny disposition and enjoyed life to its fullest.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Bob Boller; and her son, Richard Boller.

Survivors include her son: Robert Russell Boller, Louisiana; Richard's wife, Denise Boller; her granddaughters: Sandy and husband, William Kueck, and Keri and husband, David Potter; and great-grandchildren: Gavin and Alex Kueck, and Daniel Potter. She will be missed by those who knew her.
