

Martha Anna Alspaugh

July 16, 1915 - October 17, 2012

MARTHA ANNA (JORN) ALSPAUGH

Martha Anna (Jorn) Alspaugh born to John and Elizabeth Jorn on July 16, 1915 in Comstock, NE went to be with her Lord on October 17, 2012 in Springfield, MO. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Jacob (Joe) Alspaugh, two brothers, three sisters, and many cherished friends and extended family. She is survived by two sons, David (wife Sandy), St. Louis, MO and John (wife Carol Ann), Columbia, MO; two daughters, Ruth (husband Gene Lund), Springfield, MO and Mary Ann (husband Harry Yates), Lone Jack, MO; seven grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren.

Born and raised in Nebraska, she moved to Louisburg, MO in 1941 then to Springfield in 1990. She farmed with her husband for many years then worked at Town County Casuals and for Buffalo Libraries for several years. Martha enjoyed quilting and crocheting. She donated many children's quilts to Springfield Crisis Center, Newborns in Need and the Council of Churches. Martha attended Louisburg Christian Church for many years and was an active leader in the Louisburg 4-H Club when her children were young. In honor of Martha's life and in lieu of flowers the family asks that donations be sent to your favorite charity.

Services for Martha will be held at 3:00 p.m. Saturday October 20, 2012 in the Montgomery-Viets Funeral Home with burial to follow in Memorial Gardens Cemetery under the direction of the Montgomery-Viets Funeral Home of Buffalo. Visitation will be Saturday from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. in the Chapel.
