I am the grand daughter of Irene and Harry J. RESOR, who was the original owner's of the Dairy Farm at the very end of County Rd. We would visit in the summertime back in the early 1970's, in a large green camper with my family. I would play with Owen's kids on their front lawn, we would play baseball, or just hang out together. I did a Google search just yesterday, with what information I could remember about the Richardson's, and this unfortunate news popped up. We have not stayed in contact all these years, and I wonder what is going on with the Old Resor Farm? You can reach me through FACEBOOK Messenger, at Belinda Ann Resor.
