Pearly L. Burns was born Nov. 8, 1912, in Windyville, the daughter of John Allen and Melda Jane (Pepper) Phillips. She died Oct. 24, 2010, at Raymore, at the age of 97 years, 11 months and 16 days.

She was united in marriage with Willis F. Burns on Oct. 18, 1930. They celebrated 72 years of marriage before her husband died July 7, 2002. To this union three daughters were born.

She was a faithful worker and lifelong member of the Windyville Baptist Church. She was a wonderful Christian woman and always had a sweet smile for everyone. If there was a need in the community, she and her husband were always there to help.

After her husband's death, she moved from the farm in Windyville to an apartment in Buffalo, where she resided for four years. In 2006, she moved to Raymore to live with her daughter and son-in-law, Alice and Bob.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Willis; an infant daughter, Linda June; two brothers: Roscoe Phillips and Otto Phillips and two infant brothers; and four sisters: Rissie Wise, Mabel Clark, Opal Chastain and Dorothy Pauline Phillips.

Survivors include her daughters: Alice and husband, Bob Lenington, Raymore, and Doris and husband, Alan Willimont, Broomfield, Colo.; four grandchildren: Paul and wife, Yvonne Peppers, Tucson, Ariz., Larry and wife, Jennifer Peppers, Santa Fe, N.M., Donna and husband, Bobby Manning, Overland Park, Kan., and Dale Lenington, Kansas City; 11 great-grandchildren: Allison Manning, Casey Manning, Dylan Manning, Ben Manning, Jeremy Manning, Mathew Manning, Ryan Manning, Athena Peppers, Eric Peppers, Hans Peppers and Steve Peppers; 11 great-great-grandchildren; a host of nieces and nephews; and friends and neighbors who will mourn her passing.
