

Ronald Miller

May 17, 1944 - February 7, 2022

Ronald “Ron” Lee Miller, son of Merle and Wilma Lucille (Sayles) Miller, was born on May 17, 1944, in Perry, Iowa, and departed this life on February 7, 2022, at his home in Buffalo, Missouri. At the time of his passing, he was seventy-seven years, ten months, and nineteen days of age.

Ron held many titles throughout his lifetime. He was a farmer, a business owner, a husband, a father, but his favorite was “Papa”. Born in 1944, Ron was raised on a farm in Woodward, Iowa. In 1974, he and his wife, Diana, moved to Buffalo, Missouri.

He continued his family legacy of farming and livestock throughout his lifetime. In addition to being a farmer, he enjoyed starting many ventures which allowed him to travel the country, earning numerous awards and accolades along the way. Ron’s many businesses included: Miller’s Go-Kart Racing, Miller Implement, Buffalo True Value, Ozark Floor Care, Ozark Store Fixtures, and farming corn, soybeans, hogs, cattle, and raising and showing draft horses.

However, his true love and passion was his family. He proposed to his bride, Diana Farley, after just six months of dating, and over the last fifty-three years of marriage they have built a wonderful family together. They were blessed with five children, thirteen grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. During their frequent and loud family gatherings Ron would remark, “How blessed am I to have so many and not a dud in the group!”

of Woodward, Iowa, and his sister, Marilyn May of Woodward, Iowa. Ron is survived by his wife, Diana Miller of Buffalo, Missouri; children, Susan (Drew) Keith of Buffalo, Missouri, Debbie (Scott) Daniels of Nampa, Idaho, Julie (Mitch) Brockman of Buffalo, Missouri, Scott (Kami) Miller of Buffalo, Missouri, and Christy (David) Dickson of Grain Valley, Missouri; thirteen grandchildren, Landon (Lea) Keith Buffalo, Missouri, Gracie (Stiel) Carter Urbana, Missouri, Caleb (Melanie) Daniels, Noah (Kerri) Daniels, Jonah Daniels, Sophie Daniels all of Nampa, Idaho, Megan (Alex) Valencia-Darnell of Kansas City, Missouri, Wyatt Darnell of Columbia, Missouri, step-grandson, Keegan Brockman of Buffalo, Missouri, Shaylie (Jarrett) Rogers of Republic, Missouri, Hayden Miller of Buffalo, Missouri, Delaney Miller of Buffalo, Missouri, Olivia Dickson and Carter Dickson both of Grain Valley, Missouri; and four great-grandchildren, Layne, Barrett, and Colter Carter and Lincoln Keith; two sisters, Loretta Miller of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and Donna (C. “ My family moved to Woodward, Iowa in 1957. Ron’s parents assisted us in moving and Ron and I quickly became friends. Enjoyed going to school with him for 6 years, playing sports together and often going on Double-Dates. It was Ron’s and my privilege to have Ron as our Best Man at our wedding in 1964. We did lose contact while Ron and I traveled the world with the States Navy. It was a pleasure to finally connect back with Ron and Diana vis a Class reunion. God Bless, RIP my Friend!

“ Ron was a school classmate from Kindergarten until we were graduated from 12th grade. Our class was only 30 people so we seemed like family. Ron was part of that school family even though over the years I lost track of every one, including Ron. Years of riding the same school bus remain in my memories. From Kathie Newland Zingler
