Rosa May (Barr) Parscale was born Aug. 3, 1938, in Joplin, the daughter of Claude and Gertrude Barr. She died Nov. 10, 2010, at her home in Conway from cancer, at the age of 72 years, 3 months and 7 days.

She was saved at the age of 8 and attended the First Baptist Church of Joplin.

She later joined the Second Baptist Church of Springfield.

She was united in marriage with Harold Satterfield on Feb. 14, 1954, and to this union two sons were born, Claude and Terry.

She was united in marriage with Carl Parscale on Nov. 21, 1961, and with this union she added his two children to their family, Carlann and Danny.

She loved to ride motorcycles and go on trail rides. In 1962 they moved to the farm in Dallas County where she loved to work on the farm and milked for years. All the animals became pets to her.

Her favorite pastime was doing crossword puzzles, and she did them as long as her health would let her.

She was preceded in death by her parents; and one son, Carl Daniel Parscale Jr.

Survivors include her husband, Carl, of the home; two sons: Claude and wife, Stacy Satterfield, and Terry Satterfield, all of Buffalo; one daughter, Carlann and husband, Ronnie Friend, Neosho; four grandchildren: Ryan Satterfield and Jared Satterfield, both of Columbia, Rebecca and husband, Andy Collins, Welch, Okla., and Jacob Friend, Neosho; one great-granddaughter, Naomi Collins,
