

Sim "Smitty" T. Smitherman III

October 13, 1945 - March 6, 2016

Smitty was born in Centreville, Bibb County Alabama on Oct 13, 1945. He was the oldest son of Sim T. Jr and Helen Shirley (Bishop) Smitherman. He passed away on the family farm near Louisburg, MO on 6 March 2016.

A 1964 graduate of Buffalo High School, Smitty was a lifelong farmer who worked many jobs to support his farming hobby. He worked for several years as a truck driver and lastly as a postal carrier. Many funny family stories involve the antics of his animals.

Smitty was a Vietnam Veteran, who enlisted in the US Navy. His parents met while members of the US Navy during WWII. He and his brothers Tony and Les all served in the US Navy.

In 1968, he was united in marriage with Florence Wessel. They would have three children before divorcing.

In 1980, he married Gloria Carpenter. Their daughter's birth completed the chant of "Linda, Brenda, Sim and Kim."

He was preceded in death by his parents, daughter Brenda Lee Thomas, brothers Tony and Leslie Smitherman and sister LeeAnn Smitherman Richardson.

He is survived by his widow, Gloria, his daughters Linda K (Jeff) Jensen and Kimberly (David) Stark and his son Sim T. (Kim) Smitherman Jr, his sister Donna (Steve) Carlisle and his brothers Bob (Connie) Bass, Dusty (Joyce) Smitherman and his great aunt Alice Johnson. Papa Smitty was the beloved grandpa to Renee, Whitney and Levi Watts, Tiffanie Cole, Buddy and Cortney

Smitherman, Kaylee Schoenfeldt , JJ Jensen, Abby, Katie and Chase Stark, Jacob Wright and Aaron Arnold, and great grandpa to Blaine Smitherman, Jace Duckering, Landon and Cayden Becker. He is also survived by many nieces and nephews, cousins and friends who will greatly miss him.

“ *There's a new star in the sky tonight, Shining bold, shining bright.
Another of God's angels has taken flight
To sit at the Master's throne.
Rest in peace, Smitty. You will be greatly missed.*
