“ My condolences to the family and friends of Terry Glen Roberts. We spent many hours talking about his family and friends. He called me on the phone to share a special time with his grandson as they were on their way to purchase a new bow. He cherished his times hunting with his grandsons. He was in his element when he was riding bulls or hunting. I pray for all who knew and loved Terry, that at this time that they may be consoled by their memories of Terry knowing he loved them all so much. My heart is with them now. Terry loved deeply and was adamant about that love. He shared with me the times with family members and his dear friend RJ. I wish I could be there to meet family and friends to be able to put faces with the names and share precious memories. Love to all. Farewell Terry until we meet again, my heart is yours forever.
