“ I remember when Victoria Leal Freddie was born, Bothwell Hospital in Sedalia, Missouri.

She was a tiny baby, weighing 5lbs. She had a head full of hair that stood straight up.

When she was just a couple of months old, Vickie's Daddy was sent to Greenland for a 13 month stay. Dan was in the US Air Force.

At the time Dan was shipped off, my Sister, Janett, and her two babies came to live in an apartment on the second floor where my parents, Lloyd and Clara LaRose and me lived.

She had Tammie Maria and the baby Victoria Lynn. Mother and Daddy wanted Janett close by while her husband was away.

Vickie was always such a good baby and I remember thinking that when she cried she sounded like a kitten. She was not very loud.

As she grew it became apparent that this quiet, unassuming little girl got what she wanted, not by being pushy, but by making you see things her way.

Vickie always adored my Mother, her Grandmother Clara, who taught her about Jesus. Those two had a deep and caring love for each other.

From time to time, as her Daddy was sent to different tours of duty, Vickie would be around our house. My Daddy became ill at one point, and Vickie would hover over him and make it known to the other kids that she was taking care of Grandpa. She was always like that growing up; ever mindful of others and their feelings. You won't find many people like that these days.

When Vickie married David Freddie (known to most of you as Tinky), her dream was to have a family. Eventually, she did. She had her son Jared and became a Mother like no other. She loved that little boy so very much. Vickie was at all of Jared's football games and took such pride in her son and all of his accomplishments.

Jared married and he and his wife had a little boy. Vickie was ecstatic.

Then Covid came along....

Now Vickie is with God. Her suffering has stopped but to those of us left behind...the pain is cruelly painful. We wouldn't want her to *suffer anymore but we wanted her to stay and be well.

I guess God had plans for our sweet Vickie.
Rest in his arms now, Vickie. You did well. Godspeed my dear niece.
You will never be forgotten. Never.

“ Vickie made her house feel like home to whoever walked through the door and you always knew you were welcomed in at anytime. Before you left, she always gave you a big hug and kiss on the cheek. She radiated with the love of Jesus. “Mama Fred” will be missed.
