“ Brad, I will miss you a great deal. You and Beth came into my life by purchasing Millie from me and from there on you have stopped in my store and chat with me. No matter how I was feeling you always left me with a smile on my face. I will miss our visits and talks but mainly I will miss your energetic wit and humor! Beth, may God give you strength to carry on and if you ever need anything you know where I am. God Speed Brad!

“ Even though Brad and I were not in the same class at Hartville High, Brad made a difference on everyone's lives at the school during his time there. He was the type of guy that could hang out with any type of student and totally fit in. He always had a smile on his face and made sure everyone was taken care of, especially when they were having a bad day.
Brad is someone who will never be forgotten and my thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time.

“ The last thing Brad told us is that we were his friends. Probably the most serious thing he ever said. We consider that an honor. He always put a smile on our faces and one thing I know for certain is how much he loved Beth. Beth, your husband cherished you. He was a good man and did good things for this world. We will definitely miss him. Keeping Beth and the family in our prayers and thoughts.

“ Brad will be remembered in my heart as a jovial, intelligent, loving friend. I have many memories of what a great person he was from when I was 12 years old to just last month. I first met Brad when I was in 7th grade and I thought it was so cool that a guy played the flute! You will be remembered, Brad. Hey, say hi to my mom, would ya?

“ If you could only have one friend in your life, Brad would have been the one to have. He was so special, unique, spreading smiles and laughter wherever he was, seldom showing his serious side. His smile was contagious.

Beth, his children, Grandchildren other family members, and Friends. My heart and prayers are with you in this very difficult time. May the Lord give you strength, and in time, peace and comfort.
